

TOV COUNTRY

FEBRUARY 2014

T&C's

Top 50 Bachelors

Our Annual Tell-All Survey of the Most Intriguing
Men in the World

Scott Eastwood

Dirty Harry's
Son of a Gun

Plus:

- » The New Knights
of Hollywood
- » Kennedy and Single
- » Seven European
Crowns to Snag
- » A Sneak Peek at
2013's Perfect Man

Are All
Stepmothers
Created Evil?

A NEW POTION
THAT TURNS BACK THE AGE CLOCK

SOCIAL CALENDAR

2014 February

COM For more things to do, go to
TOWNANDCOUNTRYMAG.COM

IN SEASON: ST. VALENTINE

» GIFT SUGGESTIONS

Invite your beloved to LACMA's French art tour and Bordeaux tasting on the 15th, or wait for the 26th and Doyle New York's auction of "Jewelry and Contents from Abandoned Safe Deposit Boxes." One man's trash...

ART & CULTURE

» PRISCILLA RATTAZZI

Through February 22
The photographer's show at Staley-Wise Gallery in NYC highlights her landscapes and portraits, including one of her uncle Gianni Agnelli (left).

» PALM SPRINGS FOLLIES

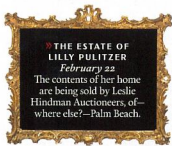

Through March 8
The farewell season that began with Susan Anton continues this month with Maureen McGovern. It's the end of an era, kids.

» BILLY BUDD

February 7
BAM hosts the Glyndebourne Festival production. It will make you reconsider high school English, and maybe even Captain Vere.

» AMERICAN COOL

February 7
The Smithsonian takes a nationalistic view of the subject with work from Avedon, Arbus, and Cartier-Bresson.

» THE ESTATE OF LILLY PULITZER

February 22
The contents of her home are being sold by Leslie Hindman Auctioneers, of—where else?—Palm Beach.

» DRIES VAN NOTEN

February 28
Paris's Musée des Arts Décoratifs takes a backward glance at fashion's poet intellectual.

SPORTS

» SUPER BOWL XLVIII

February 2
No matter who ends up playing, New York is going to throw quite a party.

» SCOTTIES TOURNAMENT OF HEARTS

February 1-9
Cancel everything: It's the Canadian Women's Curling Championship, in Montreal!

Carl Reichert's Budding Artists (above) is at the Bonhams sale, starting at $12,000.

THE WINTER GAMES

Ralph Does Russia

The Olympics: February 7-23

We can't vouch for its wardrobe the rest of the year, but Team USA will be particularly well dressed for two full weeks in February. The team's Polo Ralph Lauren uniforms were made entirely in the USA, and the closing ceremony garb—a navy peacoat with a red stripe across the bottom, a vintage-looking ski sweater with an American flag sewn onto it, and a chunky tasseled knit hat—is particularly fetching.

MOVABLE FEASTS

» THE SUGAR CAKE BALL

February 15
A charity gala at Jamaica's Round Hill resort. Try wearing flip-flops under your ball gown.

» RUSS & DAUGHTERS CAFE

February
A bagel, a shmear, and, finally, a table. This 65-seat café at 127 Orchard Street is from the owners of the beloved Lower East Side whitfish emporium.

DOG DAY AFTERNOONS

A WEEK CANINE LOVERS DREAM OF

» BARKFEST February 9

A mimosa brunch to preview the Dogs in Show auction at Bonhams, New York. Pets welcome.

» WESTMINSTER DOG SHOW February 10 and 11

Go if only to decide which is better, Christopher Guest's version or the real thing.

» BONHAMS DOGS IN SHOW & FIELD, THE FINE ART SALE February 12

Competition is high for a 17th-century painting depicting more than 30 dog breeds, estimated to fetch between $200,000 and $300,000.

The London College of Fashion is hosting a PUPPET SHOW ON FEBRUARY 4 inspired by John Galiano's INTERVIEW WITH CHARLIE ROSE.

It's called LITTLE JOHN TALKS. Little John is dressed in a Napoleon uniform.

Random fact at the ready for the occasional lull in dinner-party conversation...

